MACLEOD MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS IMMINENT
—MON., DEC. 13th

Town of Macleod nominations for vacancies on the Council and School Board occur on Monday, December 6th—Elections for same on Monday, December 13th.

Automatically retiring members of the council are: Mayor Fawcett, Councilors Gardiner, Morris and McDonald.

Automatically retiring members of Macleod School Board are: Chairman McNicol and Trustees Day and Stewart.

It has been authoritatively stated to the Times that Mayor Fawcett will accept nomination for a second term, and it is believed that Councilors Morris, McDonald and Gardiner would do likewise, and The Times believes that in such an event the taxpayers of Macleod could not do better in their own interests than to return the mayor and councilors to their seats by acclamation. The present council assumed a thankless and difficult task in accepting office under existing circumstances—they have worked harmoniously in the public interest and their business-like administration of the town's affairs with their policy of judicious retrenchment by all feasible economies is to be highly commended and it would logically appear to be in the town's interest that they should be returned to further continue their satisfactory work towards Macleod's re-establishment as a town municipality conducted on business lines and in its ratepayers' interests.

Incidental to the above it might be stated that taxes are the basis of the town's financial stability and that their payment before Dec. 1st will mean to the tax payer a duty performed and a saving of 10 per cent, as the discount period closes Dec. 1st.

MOVING PICTURES
MADE IN MACLEOD
BY BIG CORPORATION

To picture fans productions and producers are in the nature of hearsay—far away vagaries akin to fairy tales, folk-lore and bible stories—They believe there are such—in fact know it without any very keen realization of the fact. They see the pictures and are pleased or dissatisfied, according to their tastes, in many instances apart from the merit of the play.

To the Macleod movie fans during the past week have been brought the human interest phase of moving picture production in the witnessing of the real (no pun intended to be suggested) surely to goodness making of a reel or two of "Cameron of the Mounties," in their very midst and the seeing of the artists at their work—proving indisputably that pictures are made, not evoked from chaotic ideas by a latter day miracle—but studiously and laboriously worked out by the necromancy of intelligent effort by very human humans like ourselves, whose lot by choice or chance is cast in the sphere of catering to the amusement loving public. "Cameron of the Royal Mounted" (from the novel "Corporal Cameron" by Ralph Connor)—a big $120,000.00 feature being produced by the First National (one of the biggest film releasing corporations in the United States with headquarters at New York City) is being, in part, filmed at Macleod with a view to obtaining realistic local color, as the Royal North West Mounted Police figure largely in the feature.

On Saturday evening last Henry MacRae, director of the production, arrived in Macleod with twenty-six artists, direct from the First National studios at Los Angeles, California.

Gaston Glass, who played lead in "Humoresque" and "The World and His Wife," is in the title role as Corporal Cameron; Vivian Osborne, starred in "Over the Hills to the Poor House" and in "The Restless Sex," as leading lady, represents "the girl in the case"; Irving Cummings plays the role of "Raven," and Canadians will welcome him as appearing in "Whip." George Larkin, of "Trey of Hearts" fame, acts "Potts," the villain; Frank Lanning, as the Indian "Little Thunder," is a good Indian though a live one. Gordon Griffith, who made a hit in "Tom Sawyer," plays the boy "Tim." Joseph Singleton, formerly appearing in Griffiths big productions, plays "Perkins" and William Calvin, who was associated with Mary Pickford in "Suds" personifies "Old Haley." Truly a galaxy of stars of the higher magnitudes. Incidentally it may be mentioned that Gaston Glass is a returned American soldier and bears scars of the big fray in Europe.

The scene of the operations was laid west of Macleod along the Old Man River, where precipitous, twisting banks lend assistance to the covert approach of the Indians and outlaws in the train hold-up and whiskey smuggling scenes and townspeople have daily, during the past week, availed themselves of the opportunity to witness a big picture in the making, to witness the discomfiture of the "bad men" in the attempt to hold up the train for the pay-roll, in the victory of the hero, the rescue of the fair lady, and to imagine the sequel in which "they lived happy ever afterwards"—all set to the detonations of rifles, the charging rescue by the Royal North West Mounted Police led by Corporal Cameron and heaps of action by the noble red men and the daring desperadoes—"better than a picture show."

Henry MacRae speaks appreciatively of the courtesy of the Royal North West Mounted Police as represented by Inspector McDonald and of Road Master Smith, representing the C.P.R. Speaking of the Royal North West Mounted Police Henry MacRae said: "It is the impression of all representative Americans that Western Canada owes in a great measure its law abiding civilization to the same fearlessness of the Royal North West Mounted Police in the execution of justice in the troublesome pioneer days."

Director Henry MacRae is a brother of Finley MacRae, the latter a one-time resident of Macleod, where for a time he was manager of the Bank of British North America, and later was manager of the Macleod Flouring Mills, and who is now president of the Dominion Chocolate Company at Toronto, Ont.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATIONAL COUNCIL LIKELY TO ORGANIZE MACLEOD

So that Southern Alberta may be better covered for boys' and girls' work by the Religious Educational Council of Alberta, it was decided at the convention of the Lethbridge district, this week, to recommend that Macleod be made into a district, separate from Lethbridge. A resolution was passed recommending to the provincial officials that a convention be called for the Macleod district for organization purposes.

Under the present organization the Lethbridge district extends right up to the Crow's Nest and some think this territory is much too large. Realization of the amount of work that can be done in the Crow's Nest country has brought forward the contention that headquarters should be moved nearer the seat of action and therefore the recommendation that Macleod have an organization convention.

It was the desire of the Lethbridge convention that this Macleod work should not be left off too long. They want the organization work to be concluded immediately. The Macleod representatives who were present at the morning session were eager to have this done.—Lethbridge Herald.

WHEAT SELLING CONDITIONS IN ALBERTA ACUTE

One of the district organizers of the U.F.A. membership drive who was in the central offices of the organization Friday morning, in discussing the present wheat situation with a representative of the Calgary Herald, remarked that conditions were becoming acute. There was no doubt that many of the farmers were holding their wheat for better prices—in fact he was doing so himself, he said—as the general feeling was that anything under $2.50 a bushel there would be little if any profit in the season's operations.

Farm implements, he said, were double the price to what they were pre-war times, and in labor and every other direction there had been enormous increases. One of the causes of dissatisfaction amongst farmers was that those who were fortunate enough to have their threshing completed early received a fair price before the slump came. The great advantage of the Canadian Wheat Board was that the farmer who sold the first bushel of wheat and one who sold the last received exactly the same price.

The farmer referred to stated he was certainly inclined to think that with the co-operation of farmers in the States holding their wheat that higher prices would ultimately rule. At the present market price for November wheat there was certainly a loss in the business, he said, as it only left the growers about $1.70 a bushel after deducting the freight to Fort William, the handling charges and insurance, and the cost of threshing.—Calgary Herald.

ORGANIZED PLAY

What is meant by Organized Play?—During the forenoon and afternoon recess the teachers go out on the play-ground not only to supervise but also to take part in the students' games; baseball, two-deep, pom-pom pull-away, basketball, indoor baseball, hockey and others.

How does it effect discipline? If the teacher conducts it in the proper manner there is no danger of the student becoming too familiar. In fact student and teacher understand each other better after having taken their parts in the same game.

How does it benefit the teachers?—Indulging in physical exertion for fifteen minutes in the middle of the forenoon or afternoon starts one's blood in circulation and one's mind is consequently much brighter to undertake the remaining work of the day.

On the playground the teacher can learn the disposition of his pupils better than he possibly could in the class room.

When properly conducted supervised play promotes cordiality between pupils and teachers.

Of what use is the teacher in the field?—Without the teacher's presence on the field only a few of the students will take part in the games; the rest will hang around the school house and borders of the playground. But with the teacher out a larger number participate.

By saying who is to be on this side, who is to be forward, a deal of contention is avoided. Then again the teacher impartially settled all petty arguments over this point and that.

The teacher acts as a policeman. He sees that those who want to play are not prevented by those who don't. He checks overexuberance of temper which might otherwise endanger life and limb.

He teaches the students new games and new pointers about old games. He can best arrange for interschool matches.

He fulfills all the duties of an organizer, promoter and supervisor.

How does supervised play benefit the pupils?—They get the same recreative benefit the teacher gets and

SOUTH MACLEOD
IRRIGATION PROJECT
PROGRESSES FAVORABLY

Acknowledgment by the department of receipt of the South Macleod Irrigation Project petition has been received here and assurance given that the matter is receiving every attention. The official definition of the boundaries of the project according to surveyors' reports are to be set by F. H. Peters, Commissioner of Irrigation, at an early date and on their receipt by the Department of Public Works the matter will doubtless come to a speedy consummation and the date for the vote set without further delay.

It is expected here that the procedure will be fully carried out in time to allow of a vote being taken in January. Assuming that the checking up of the petitioners' names is completed in good time and that a sufficient number of owners have been certified to have signed the petition, the rest of the action will follow by course. The department officials state that the matter will be expedited as much as possible.

ENTERTAINED IN HONOR OF
MRS. RENWICK

Mrs. H. M. Smith entertained at Bridge on Wednesday, the 17th, in honor of Mrs. Renwick, who is leaving to make her home in Calgary—the prize being won by Mrs. A. T. Leather. The rooms were very prettily decorated with yellow 'Mums and red carnations. The tea table looked very attractive with pink and white carnations and was presided over by Mrs. A. T. Leather assisted by Miss Gladys Jones and Miss Margaret McCartin. The guests included Mrs. Ferguson, Mrs. Lindsay (Winipeg), Mrs. Embury, Mrs. Steel (Pincher Creek), Mrs. A. T. Leather, Mrs. Millburn, Mrs. John McDonald, Mrs. Skelding, Mrs. Matheson, Mrs. Young, Mrs. Renwick, Mrs. Becher, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. D. W. Davis, Mrs. Grady, Mrs. Struhs, Mrs. Shearer, and Mrs. Kennedy.

Mrs. J. D. Matheson entertained on Thursday the 18th in honor of Mrs. Renwick—the prize being won by Mrs. J. W. McDonald. The rooms were decorated with a profusion of yellow 'Mums and red carnations, the tea table being very prettily arranged with red carnations. Mrs. Malcolm McKenzie poured tea, assisted by Mrs. Kennedy, Miss Gladys Jones and Miss McDonald.

Mrs. A. D. Ferguson entertained Monday evening, the 15th, in honor of Mrs. Renwick.

Mrs. Skelding entertained on Friday evening the 12th at the tea hour in honor of Mrs. Renwick.

Mrs. C. D. T. Becher entertained Tuesday evening, the 16th, at bridge in honor of Mrs. Renwick.

SPRACKLIN WILL FACE TRIAL ON CHARGE OF
"KILLING AND SLAYING"

TORONTO, Nov. 18th.—J. O. L. Spracklin, the preacher license inspector, who shot and killed Beverley Trumble recently, during a raid on the latter's hotel at Sandwich, will be placed on trial on a charge of "killing and slaying" Trumble, despite the fact that a coroner's jury decided that he did it in self-defense, in the performance of his duty as a license inspector. This decision was announced by Attorney-General Roney this morning, after a conference with Crown Attorney Rodd, of Windsor. After a preliminary hearing, Spracklin will probably be allowed out on bail, until the Sandwich assizes, about six months hence.—Calgary Herald.

more, because they are always participating.

By learning thru play to better appreciate each other and their teacher, school life becomes more enjoyable.

Properly conducted games more than anything else, teach girls and boys the value of British fair play, self control, forbearance, and manly courage.

Do many schools have supervised play?—Yes. The larger cities and towns hire one or more teachers to do nothing else but look after the playground activities. These teachers being specialists in that subject receive from two to three thousand dollars salary per annum. In small towns, villages, and prairie schools organized play is very frequently conducted by the regular teacher.

What was the old fashioned opinion of athletic games?—It is a good way to pass away an idle hour or to keep "the boys out of mischief."

What is the modern idea of organized games?—Such games as basketball, hockey and baseball, when properly conducted, have as much cultural value for the boy or girl as many of the studies at present on the course.

COLIN B. FAULKNER

SWEETGRASS RANCHER FATALLY SHOT IN
MIDNIGHT ENCOUNTER

Startling details of an encounter between two parties, at the midnight hour on Monday, six miles west of Sweetgrass, with the shooting and killing of Henry Jacobson, a well known rancher, who lived 17 miles west of Sweetgrass, reached the city last night. The shooting was the result of a hold-up on the morning of Monday, in which the deceased Jacobson figured, when, near Kevin, Montana, he met one Bob Meers, who was driving a car with a cargo of liquor, and forthwith proceeded to hold him up, capturing and getting away with the liquor.

It appears that a car containing Immigration Officer Walker, Harry Watkins, who was driving the car, Mike Swigan, and a man called Casey, of Havre, Montana, started out to search Jacobson's place for the stolen booze. Evidently Jacobson got wind of the journey and the purpose of the party, for he started out with a car containing, besides himself, a man named Haxton, of Edmonton, an employee of Dygart, a horse-dealer, of Edmonton, Jim Purcell, of Sweetgrass and Connie Sheam. The cars with the two parties met some six miles west of Sweetgrass. At the sight of the car with Walker and his party, Jacobson, it is related, drew his car across the roadway and proceeded on foot, gun in hand, to meet the approaching car. He called on the occupants to halt and to get out. This they forthwith did. Hereupon, shouting to Walker that he was the man he wanted, Jacobson proceeded to beat him up, laying him out on the roadway. The rest of the party pulled Jacobson off his man, when he turned and made for Swigan, whom he pursued up the roadway. All that was heard and seen was the sound of a gun with Jacobson staggering and falling. Running up to him the others discovered that he was dead with the gun by his side.

Killed by Unknown Hand

At the inquest, held at the Thompson hotel, Sweetgrass, on Tuesday, with the coroner summoned from Shelby and the city clerk and city attorney, a verdict was returned of "killed by an unknown hand."

It was brought out at the inquest that it was a bullet from Immigration Officer Walker's gun that had delivered the fatal shot, but the evidence went on to show that Walker could not have fired the shot, as he was lying helpless on the ground as the result of the mauling he had received from Jacobson, and just at the time the shot was heard, was being picked up by Purcell. It also transpired that Swigan had an interest in the booze that had been stolen from Meers, and that he was drunk at the time of the encounter. He was also drunk on the witness stand at the inquest, and decided having anything to do with the shooting. None of the men have been placed under arrest but all are under police observation.

Jacobson was well known in Lethbridge and southern Alberta. He left a wife and three children.—Lethbridge Herald.

DATE SUGGESTED
FOR GIVING EFFECT
TO DRY VOTE

OTTAWA, Nov. 18.—On the return of the premier next week there will be a number of matters of interest to be discussed in council, among them the date for the opening of parliament. The present expectation is that it will be within the week beginning January 20.

One of the reasons urging an early session is the necessity for a special amendment to the Franchise Act which will do away with the necessity of making entirely new lists for the Ontario prohibition referendum in April. It is hoped to end the session before June so that the premier and those of his colleagues who are going to the Imperial Conference in June can do so.

The cabinet has also to fix the date for giving effect by proclamation to the recent dry vote in Nova Scotia and the prairie provinces. The present date suggested is January 1.—Calgary Herald.

TURKS MAKE FURTHER DEMANDS
ON ARMENIANS

LONDON, Nov. 20.—The British Armenia committee has received advice to the effect that after the armistice between Mustapha Kemal Pasha, Turkish Nationalist leader, and the Armenians, which was agreed to Nov. 4, the Turks sent another ultimatum to the Armenians, which was to expire within 24 hours, demanding the surrender of an enormous quantity of arms and ammunition, and conditions which would leave the Turks in complete possession of the greater part of the Erivan republic.

The committee adds that the Armenian government purposes to re-open four parlors at Alexandropol, but that hostilities are expected to be renewed immediately.—Calgary Herald.

LOCAL INDIANS
AWARDED HIGH
MILITARY HONOR

The R. B. Bennett Shield presented to the Champion Cadet Corps of Alberta has been won by the St. Paul's Indian Cadet Corps of the Blood Reserve. This champion cadet corps was organized by Capt. (Rev.) S. Middleton in 1911 and has on several occasions gained distinction, especially so at the Calgary Camps in 1912 and 1913, where they brought back to Macleod several trophies. The Shield presented by R. B. Bennett, Esq., K.C., of Calgary, is awarded to the Cadet Corps in Alberta gaining the highest honors, and as there were over seventy-five cadet corps in the province competing for this shield, the St. Paul's Boys are to be congratulated on their wonderful success. The inspection of the Cadets was held in June of this year when Major Millar the Inspecting Officer complimented the Indians on their drill and military maneuvers in the highest terms. The late Lieut. Albert Mountain Horse who died (on his return to Canada) from injuries received overseas, was a former cadet of the St. Paul's Corps, and several other Indians who enlisted from the Blood Reserve received their first taste of military training from the St. Paul's Indian Cadet Corps. Every member of the Corps is a full blooded Indian, and it speaks very highly for the training they received from Capt. Middleton and Lieutenants Pearce and Herron, who have worked so hard with the boys to bring them to their present state of perfection in military tactics. Special mention should be made to the signalling corps of the Indian Boys, who under the able instruction of Lieut. Herron, gained first class honors in this work.

AGED COUPLE
REMARRY AFTER BEING DIVORCED

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 20.—Henriette Schmailzl, 67, and Clemens H. Schmailzl, aged 74, parents of seventeen children, forgot the divorce that separated them five years ago and were re-married here Friday. They were married in 1867. Mrs. Schmailzl was granted a divorce in 1915, having charged her husband with non-support and cruelty. When they appeared for the marriage license to day they said they were as happy as they were the day they were married 53 years ago. Mrs. Schmailzl took the initiative in procuring the license. She guided the faltering hand of her husband as he signed the application. Twelve of their 17 children are living.—Calgary Herald.

DUBLIN SCENE OF
AWFUL CARNAGE

DUBLIN, Nov. 21.—Thirty persons are reported to have been killed and many injured when "Black and Tans" invaded a football match today and fired on the crowd.

While the Tipperary team was playing against Dublin, in Croke Park, in the presence of 15,000 spectators, "Black and Tans" entered in force by the two gates and after a scene of wild confusion, fired on the people.

Began Before Midnight
DUBLIN, Nov. 22.—Shooting began in the streets just before midnight and a number of people are reported killed. There is much military activity.

The casualties in Croke Park are semi-officially given as 10 killed and 65 injured, 11 seriously.—Lethbridge Herald.

Nearly everybody who saw Queen Mary at the Court recently at Buckingham Palace could not help remarking on the big blazing diamond which shone in the centre of her diadem. It was the romantic and terrible Koh-i-noor which, according to tradition, "may without misfortune, but brings no harm to a woman." Its history for nearly five centuries has to a large extent supported this "superstition," for many eastern monarchs who wore it died the death. When it came into the possession of Queen Victoria it lay for a long time out of sight. It has at any rate brought no misfortune to our Queen.—Family Herald.

Piles Cured Permanently Without Drugs

Internal Bathing Relieves the Cause

Mr. A. N. Steele, Cupar, Sask., writes: "I had been troubled with my Stomach, Piles and Constipation for years until I had become very thin and looked 20 years older. A leading Doctor in Regina told me that the main canal was badly ulcerated. I gradually became worse, until one day, when purchasing a threshing outfit from Mr. Russell of Regina, Mr. Russell noticed my condition and said: 'I can cure you. Get a J.B.L. Cascade.' Well, I did so, and the first night I used it I slept all night for the first time in weeks, and in a short time felt quite myself again. It also cured my piles, which had troubled me for years."

If you are troubled with constipation, don't drug yourself. Internal bathing with the J.B.L. Cascade is the only permanent way. This wonderful appliance is the invention of Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell, New York. It is pleasant and easy to use, and will serve the whole family. It should be in every home. See the J. B. L. Cascade at A. D. Ferguson's, Drug-Gist, Macleod, Alta., where it will be shown and explained to you. Ask for 32-page booklet all about internal bathing. It is free, or write Tyrrell's Hygienic Institute, 163 College Street, Toronto, Ont.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. J. D. Matheson will not receive Friday of this week.

J. D. Matheson, barrister, is in Calgary today (Thursday) on business.

Mrs. T. Peterson will receive Friday, Dec. 3rd and thereafter the first Friday.

Mrs. S. J. Kirk will not receive Thursday, December 2nd, nor again this season.

K. McGregor, of Granum, was a Macleod business visitor on Tuesday of this week.

A. G. Virtue, barrister of Lethbridge, was a business visitor in Macleod Tuesday.

Mrs. W. Blair, of Granum, was the guest of Mrs. H. Little, Macleod, over the week-end.

Major Lyndon and E. Moffatt, of Claresholm, were Macleod business visitors on Monday last.

J. W. McDonald, K.C., was at Coleman Monday in connection with the prosecution of several liquor cases.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Stewart motored to Claresholm Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. George Stewart of that place.

Chapman Clarkson, of Cochrane, 13th C.M.R.'s polo player, etc., attended the Vets' dance at Macleod last Saturday night.

Word comes from Flight Lieutenant Barnes (Camp Borden), that flying weather is bad—taking the "atmos" is difficult, and he expects to be back in Macleod the first week in December.

W. Kyle, formerly shoe salesman in the Hudson's Bay Store here, now of Bayne's Lake, B.C., accompanied by his son George, spent last Sunday in Macleod, visiting friends and acquaintances.

Within the past few days ten patients have been sent by the Provincial Government to the Macleod General Hospital for accommodation in the new department—ten more are due in the near future to complete the government guarantee of twenty patients.

Charles Murdoch, of the office staff of the McLaren Lumber Co. at this point, was last Friday taken to the Macleod Hospital, suffering from an aggravated attack of appendicitis. Mr. Murdoch underwent an operation on Monday, and although his condition is critical, it is believed that he is now safely on the way to recovery.

An exchange says that one-third of the fools in the country think that they can beat a lawyer in expounding the law; one-half of them think they can beat the doctor in healing the sick. Two-thirds of them think they can beat the minister in preaching the Gospel and all of them think they can beat an editor in running a newspaper. Hurrah.

On Tuesday, November 16th, the home of Mrs. A. F. Grady, at Macleod, was the scene of a very delightful bridge party in honor of Mrs. Renwick. The tea table, looking very dainty, was presided over by Mrs. J. W. McDonald assisted by Miss Gladys Jones, Miss Margaret McNeill and Miss McDuff. The guests included Mrs. Renwick, Mrs. A. D. Ferguson, Mrs. Lindsay (Winnipeg), Mrs. Embury, Mrs. Steel (Pincher Creek), Mrs. Milburn, Mrs. H. M. Smith, Mrs. A. T. Leather, Mrs. Matheson, Mrs. Mercer, Mrs. D. W. Davis, Mrs. Atkins, Mrs. Becker, Mrs. T. B. Martin, Mrs. John McDonald,

C. W. McKinnon, local C. P. R. freight agent, returned on Monday from the east, where he was called about two weeks since by the illness of his mother. Mrs. McKinnon was well on the road to recovery at the time of her son's departure for Macleod.

At the regular meeting of the Ladies' Hospital Aid on Tuesday, 23rd, a vote of thanks was passed to the Veterans for the use of their hall on the 16th for the hospital dance; also to the Pres. Ladies' Aid for a quilt for the hospital; to the Rathwell ladies for a bag of vegetables and senders of fruit, their thanks offering, and to Mrs. J. Allen for grapefruit, apples and celery.

Those who have not been members of the Curling Club in past years, but who mean to start this year should make a point of attending the meeting in the Town Hall. Important business is to be transacted. Mr. A. Young, President, and Mr. D. G. MacKenzie, Hon. Secretary, have resigned and Mr. J. B. Garrow, Hon. Treasurer, has left town. New officials have to be appointed.

At the regular meeting of the I.O.D.E. held on Monday, Nov. 14th, at the home of Mrs. W. A. Gordon, there was a representative attendance. There had been some talk of closing the branch here, but after discussion it was decided to carry on and to specialize in Provincial Red Cross work in future. The society authorized a donation of $50.00 to the Macleod Hospital. It was also decided that a tea or dance will be given shortly to raise funds, particulars of which will appear later.

On Thursday evening of last week the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Ferguson was the scene of a happy social event, the occasion being the birthday of Miss Helen Ferguson. The evening passed pleasantly in games, music and social intercourse. Miss Helen was literally showered with floral tributes to the occasion and was the recipient of many beautiful gifts and birthday felicitations. The guests were: Miss Sanderson, Miss Heap, the Misses Watson (Nellie and Margaret), Miss Young, Mrs. W. R. Ferguson (Kamloops), Sergeant Healy, Sergeant Wright, Constable Sandell, Mrs. Lindsay, Mrs. Young, Mrs. Struthers, Mrs. Shearer, Mrs. C. W. E. Gaudin, Mrs. Renwick won the prize at bridge.

The Anglican Young People's Association gave a most enjoyable dance in the Parish Hall on Tuesday evening last.

Miss Beers, now of Lethbridge, formerly of Macleod school teaching staff, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. Cunningham over Sunday.

Mrs. A. Young entertained on Wednesday evening of this week in honor of R. E. Graves, who is leaving Macleod for his home in Montreal.

Mrs. W. Renwick and children left for Calgary on Wednesday of this week to join her husband at that point where they will in future reside.

Among those who entertained in honor of Mrs. Renwick this week were Mrs. Embury (Union Bank), Mrs. T. B. Martin and Miss Margaret McDonald.

Macleod Hockey enthusiasts—Don't fail to attend the re-organization meeting to be held in George Scougall's office Monday, Nov. 29th, at 8 o'clock p.m.—Let's go from here.

If Macleod is to have a Curling Club this winter it is time to have things organized. All curlers are reminded of the meeting of the Club on Friday, December 3rd, at eight o'clock in the Town Hall.

C. W. McKinnon, local C. P. R. freight agent, returned on Monday from the east, where he was called about two weeks since by the illness of his mother. Mrs. McKinnon was well on the road to recovery at the time of her son's departure for Macleod.

At the regular meeting of the Ladies' Hospital Aid on Tuesday, 23rd, a vote of thanks was passed to the Veterans for the use of their hall on the 16th for the hospital dance; also to the Pres. Ladies' Aid for a quilt for the hospital; to the Rathwell ladies for a bag of vegetables and senders of fruit, their thanks offering, and to Mrs. J. Allen for grapefruit, apples and celery.

Those who have not been members of the Curling Club in past years, but who mean to start this year should make a point of attending the meeting in the Town Hall. Important business is to be transacted. Mr. A. Young, President, and Mr. D. G. MacKenzie, Hon. Secretary, have resigned and Mr. J. B. Garrow, Hon. Treasurer, has left town. New officials have to be appointed.

At the regular meeting of the I.O.D.E. held on Monday, Nov. 14th, at the home of Mrs. W. A. Gordon, there was a representative attendance. There had been some talk of closing the branch here, but after discussion it was decided to carry on and to specialize in Provincial Red Cross work in future. The society authorized a donation of $50.00 to the Macleod Hospital. It was also decided that a tea or dance will be given shortly to raise funds, particulars of which will appear later.

On Thursday evening of last week the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Ferguson was the scene of a happy social event, the occasion being the birthday of Miss Helen Ferguson. The evening passed pleasantly in games, music and social intercourse. Miss Helen was literally showered with floral tributes to the occasion and was the recipient of many beautiful gifts and birthday felicitations. The guests were: Miss Sanderson, Miss Heap, the Misses Watson (Nellie and Margaret), Miss Young, Mrs. W. R. Ferguson (Kamloops), Sergeant Healy, Sergeant Wright, Constable Sandell,

G. Scougall, W. Young, E. Young, R. E. Graves and H. Benson.

"Poor Tray"—The rails are red with his heart's blood shed—toward the picture game his ambition buddin'—his demise was short and sharp and sudden—No more will he voice a cheery bow-wow—In canine annals he's a dead dog now. The foregoing may truly be said to be doggerel, and is inspired by the untimely death of a dorgie that in a hurry to get into the picture at the movie arena west of town on Tuesday, jumped from the steps of a moving caboose and fell under the wheels.

The Methodist Church Choir Members gave their leader and his good wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Doney, a surprise party on Tuesday evening. About sixteen members formed a procession from the parsonage and proceeded to storm the home of their leader. A very merry evening was spent in games and songs and after lunch the party dispersed about 11 p.m. Both the girls' choir and the senior choir have taken on a new vitality and the congregation are appreciating the brighter service of song.

On Friday evening of last week the ladies of the Presbyterian Church waited on Mrs. J. D. Matheson in a body—the affair being in the nature of a surprise party to honor the lady as president of the Ladies Aid of the church. An extremely pleasant social evening was spent during the course of which Mrs. Matheson was the recipient of a beautiful silver tray—the gift being handed to her by Mrs. Butehart for the ladies and Mrs. (Rev.) Kennedy reading an address of appreciation of the president's efforts in the organization's church work.

MANY REFORMS ADVOCATED BY THE MANITOBA FARMERS

WINNIPEG, Nov. 19.—Pledging themselves to a provincial referendum on the liquor question, to the abolition of direct taxation, the abolition of boards and commissions in the government, to the creation of a labor portfolio in the provincial cabinet, and to a rigid policy of provincial economy, the newly formed independent farmers party in the provincial house yesterday drew up its platform, containing 24 planks, many of them designed for the expansion and protection of agriculture in the province. The platform was made public today. In the preamble it is stated that the party has in view the entire eliminating of party patronage, party friend privileges and party corporation privileges "which have heretofore been the curse of past governments."

The platform includes the following clauses: Establishment of provincially controlled abattoirs and cold storage plants; increased taxation on non-productive lands; return of the natural resources to the province; completion of the Hudson's Bay railway; a vigorous good roads policy and a cabinet portfolio for proper supervision; the application of automobile license taxes toward roads expenditure; provision of adequate educational facilities to give every child an elementary education and a thorough knowledge of the English language; promotion of the status of the teacher, a pension system for teachers, and the building at a suitable time of new university buildings; equality of the sexes in regard to pay, equality in divorce, civil status and dower laws; appointment of a woman crown prosecutor; amendment of the jury act to permit women to sit on juries, and the appointment of women magistrates and juvenile officers, and finally, adherence to the principles of direct legislation, initiative and referendum and recall—Calgary Herald.

"THE VALLEY OF DOUBT" SYNOPSIS

James Hilgrade, disgusted with his son Tommy's mode of living, sends him to his lumber tract in the Northwest country to see whether clean living and hard work will make a man of him. Marion, Tommy's sister, insists upon going to supervise the reforming process.

Tommy goes from bad to worse at the Lone Pine saloon, ostensibly owned by a certain Pierre, but really the property of Macy, Hilgrade's lumber foreman, who has designs on Marion.

Marion, crossing a frozen over river, falls through the ice. She is rescued by Jules Bonniyet, a young French-Canadian who owns vast tracts of timber which he refuses to sell to the Hilgrade interests. Macy, Jules' enemy, witnesses Jules bathing Marion's foot with snow, his enmity toward Jules thereby increasing instinctively.

Macy tells Marion that it is through Jules that Tommy has been hastened on the downward path, although Jules has only played cards with Tommy to keep him from being fleeced by Pierre. Marion finds Jules in possession of Tommy's L.O.U.'s. She denounces him.

Marion learns from Annice, a French-Canadian girl, that she has been wrong in her accusation of Jules. Marion goes to Jules to apologize. Seeing Annice in Jules' arms, she construes it as a love scene. Actually, Annice has been explaining that she has strayed. Jules surmises that Tommy is responsible, and promises to see that the wrong is righted.

Tommy receives garbled accounts from Macy that Jules has insulted his sister. While Marion is apologizing to Jules, Tommy appears and lashes Jules with a heavy whip. Marion explains that it was Tommy himself, drunk, who insulted her, and forces the two men to shake hands.

Macy, failing to discredit Jules with Marion, sends Tommy back to the city to bring out old Hilgrade to interfere. Jules, mindful of his talk with Annice, thinks Tommy is escaping from the consequences of his misdeeds, and decides to follow.

Macy, inflamed by drink, attempts to force his advances upon Marion. She defends herself, leaving Macy unconscious, and hurries towards Jules' cabin. Jules rushes to rescue Marion.

Macy recovers consciousness and follows in pursuit of Marion. On the trail Macy and Jules meet. They clash. In the meantime Annice's father has told those assembled at the Lone Pine Saloon how Jules tricked his daughter. Full of anger, the mob assembles.
Marion and Annice arrive as Jules conquers Macy. The crowd appears, bent on wreaking vengeance on Jules. Annice exonerates Jules and admits that Macy is the man who wronged her. The foreman, to avoid punishment at the hands of the mob, agrees to an immediate marriage.
Marion takes refuge in Jules' arms. At the Empress Wednesday and Thursday next.

BOOKLET TELLS OF MUNICIPAL HOSPITALS

By the direction of the Hon. C. R. Mitchell, Minister of Health for Alberta, a booklet on the Municipal Hospitals of Alberta has just been issued.

According to the information contained in it, there are at present eight Municipal Hospitals in Alberta, built and operating, these being Manville, Vermilion, Drumheller, Cardston, Islay, Bassano, Onoway and Lloydminster, while schemes have been ratified for the erection of these institutions at Hanna and Viking. These hospitals districts comprise an area of 242 townships, including six towns and ten villages.

During the present year four new districts have been established, these being Calgary, Provost, High River and Pincher Creek.

It is the announced policy of Hon. C. R. Mitchell, the new Minister of Health, to proceed with this phase of the Health Department work in a most aggressive manner, but on a sound financial basis, with the idea in view of providing the greatest hospital service to the ratepayers of Alberta at a minimum cost to the districts concerned.

The booklet is an especially fine specimen of typographical art and is illustrated profusely with photographs of exterior and interior views of the hospitals, which are a credit to this progressive branch of the government.

Any information regarding Municipal Hospitals or copies of the booklet may be obtained from the secretary of the Municipal Hospitals Branch, Department of Public Health, Parliament Buildings, Edmonton, Alberta.

FARMERS WIN IN ELGIN—GOVERNMENT VICTORY IN YALE

AYLMER, Nov. 23. — With the smoke all cleared away and the hottest campaign ever waged in East Elgin over, no material change in the results was reported today. The majority of S. McDermand, the United Farmer candidate, given as 235 over his next opponent, John L. Stansell, the National Liberal and Conservative candidate, will be increased rather than decreased when further checking up is completed. The showing of the Liberal candidate, Wm. G. Charlton was not as large as predicted.

The vote was hardly as large as was expected and this was, without doubt, attributable to the inclement weather and extremely bad condition of some of the roads. There was a total of 7,837 votes cast, according to the unofficial count, nearly 500 less than at the provincial election when 8,402 ballots were registered.

The member-elect, Mr. McDermand, has a majority over the highest of his opponents in 19 of the 23 sub-divisions.

Majority 472 in Yale
Vernon, B.C., Nov. 23.—With but a few outlying polls in Yale to be heard from late this morning, the government candidate, J. A. MacKellvie, has a majority over Col. Edgett, Independent, of 472. The total poll to date is 8,924.—Lethbridge Herald.

Executive have shown their interest in public speaking by presenting the trophy as described.

WOMEN CAPTURE INNER CITADELS OF CONSERVATISM

(By Lydia Kingsmill Commander)

LONDON, Nov. 6.—(By Mail)—This session sees Oxford opening its first year as a co-educational university, receiving women on the same conditions as men, as to matriculation and degrees. For the first time since the university was founded, girl under-graduates in cap and gown freely promenade its famous streets. This is a marvelous concession to feminist progress. It means that women have stormed and taken one of the inner citadels of English conservatism.

The history of Oxford University goes back to the Saxon days, before the Norman conquest. It was the wisest and best of Saxon kings, Alfred the Great, who founded this first English university. Alfred in early youth showed a love of learning.

His step-mother Queen Judith, daughter of Charles the Bald of France, perhaps the only woman in England at that time who knew the alphabet, used to delight her stepsons by reading aloud to them from a Ms. book, inscribed on vellum and bound in velvet, set with jewels. The boys, admiring the beautiful book, desired to possess it, and the queen promised to bestow it on the one who first learned to read. Needless to say, it was the studious Alfred who captured the prize. Probably, therefore, to a woman's inspiration can be traced the founding of Oxford.

The incoming of women has added to the crowded condition of Oxford. This promises to be a record year for the number of students. During the war attendance was meagre, but last year was a very full one, and this promises to exceed it, because of the new students.—Calgary Herald.

MISSING THEATRE MAN'S SECRETARY RESTED IN OREGON

TORONTO, Nov. 23. — John Doughty, who has been arrested in Portland, Oregon, was for many years private secretary to Ambrose J. Small, millionaire Canadian theatre manager, who disappeared on December 2, 1919, after he had deposited in his bank a marked cheque for $1,000,000 which he had received from the Trans-Canada Theatres, Limited, for the purchase of his theatres. Small is still missing. On December 28 Doughty also disappeared, and search for him had been made all over the civilized world. Nothing definite concerning his whereabouts had been published until the receipt this morning of the news of his arrest in Portland. Five thousand dollars reward was offered for his apprehension.—Lethbridge Herald.

Reach & Co. ask their customers to read the notice in the advertising column. It plainly says cash, trade or monthly account. Those of the C. P. Railway will not be affected whether they pay on the fifteenth or the first. If anyone cannot pay promptly at the end of the month it then ceases to be a cash transaction and will not be increased by further purchases till it is paid. The Adv. in our local paper will explain the necessity of our change of credit. Those who pay up promptly when their bill is due will not be affected in the least. We offer this explanation as so many have misinterpreted the notice, thinking their purchases meant spot cash.

A branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce has been opened at Kingston, Jamaica, with Crawford Gordon, recently assistant manager of the Winnipeg branch, as manager.—Lethbridge Herald.

TEACHERS' CONVENTIONS

At Lethbridge on November eleventh and twelfth the teachers of the Macleod, Lethbridge, Foremost and Castor inspectorates held their fall convention. Over two hundred teachers were present. Mr. McNally, Provincial Supervisor of Schools, delivered two addresses, one of which was on the Reform of the Elementary School Curriculum. He stated that the Department at present was considering which changes were best to make in that course. He read suggestions from local branches of the U. F. A., U.F.W.A., Women's Institute, Boards of Trade. Certain U.F.A. locals wanted Agriculture omitted from Grade Eight. Other organizations wanted geometry, grammar, British History, omitted from that grade. All were agreed that something should be taken off. Dr. Alexander, of Alberta University, gave two excellent addresses. The magnetism of his personality has won for him first place among the public speakers of our province.

Are teachers' conventions any good? In the past they have been controlled by the Educational Department of the provincial government; and, to say the least, they could be managed better. For instance, from ten till twelve o'clock Thursday forenoon a round table discussion on The Problems of Principals was held. The leader should have started off with a speech lasting about thirty minutes; the remaining ninety minutes to be for the discussion. But the leader spoke continually for two hours and there was no time left for the discussion! Listening to speeches all day and all night soon grows tiresome. Teachers would benefit more if they could meet in small groups of twenty or thirty and discuss topics of mutual interest. Let some one teacher teach a lesson to a class of pupils in the presence of the other teachers for purposes of friendly criticisms and suggestions.

While a convention conducted in accordance with these principles would be far from ideal, it certainly would not be so remote from it as the present conventions are.

Whichever type of convention is in vogue there is always one benefit derived. Meeting other teachers from other schools and exchanging opinions and experiences has a buoyant effect on the spirit.

The Teachers' Alliance which has rapidly come to the fore will, as soon as it sees fit, control the conventions whether the Department "likes it" or not. When this materializes the

"THE VALLEY OF DOUBT"

Arline Pretty and Thurston Hall play the leads in the Selznick picture, "The Valley of Doubt," which is the feature attraction at the Empress Theatre Wednesday and Thursday next week.

Miss Pretty takes the part of a young American girl who goes to her father's lumber camp in Northern Canada with her brother in an effort to reform him. Thurston Hall is a young French-Canadian who falls in love with her. The course of true love in this instance runs true to form—not at all smoothly. There are many complications in the plot, for which Macy, the unscrupulous lumber boss, is largely responsible.

Others in the cast are Anna Lehr, Bobby Agnew, John Ardizoni and T. J. Murray. A prominent part is played by "Jean," the famous Bronte dog, whose beauty and intelligence have won for him a high regard among dog lovers.

Willard Mack wrote "The Valley of Doubt" and Boorn George directed it. It is full of dramatic situations and beautiful settings.

The nervous bridegroom was called upon to make a speech at the wedding breakfast.

Putting his hand on his bride's shoulder, he hesitatingly remarked: "Ladies and gentlemen, this thing has been thrust upon me."

"How do you like these cigars, Brown?" the host asked. "Pretty fair, what?"

"Splendid!" responded the unhappy guest. "But I can tell you something that will please you. I know a place where you can get even cheaper cigars than these."—Family Herald.

FARMING A PROFESSION

One of the greatest and most urgent problems pressing upon the people of the North American Continent is how to make farm life attractive and how to retain the young people on the farm. With the ever-increasing drift to the cities the world is threatened with starvation. We are told that the young people are being attracted to the "professions," which in some cases are being lamentably over-crowded.

What is a profession? How distinguish it from a trade or occupation? A recent writer specifies four marks which characterize it. A profession implies a special body of technical and scientific knowledge, an extended period of study and practice, a service rendered which is essential to public welfare, the recognition of definite moral obligations by its members to each other and to the community.

Why should not farming be exalted as a profession? The day is long passed when it can be classed with unskilled labor. Vastly more is required than being able to hoe potatoes. Our agricultural colleges are establishing a high standard. In the scientific, business and political worlds farmers are taking high place by virtue of their education and practical training. That the largest welfare of the community is very dependent upon them needs no argument—the last five years have furnished practical demonstration—wheat had more to do with winning the war than any other factor. As to professional ethics few have acted upon so high and unimpeachable moral standards as the tillers of the soil.

A WINTER OCCUPATION

You need not be without occupation for the long winter evenings. You can just spend your time trying to understand the mind of the taxation experts of the Dominion Government.
You have to pay taxes? That's right, you'll be fined if you don't. But you cannot, that is, if you are a business man you cannot pay taxes unless you have a license. If you pay a license to pay taxes as a manufacturer you cannot pay taxes as a manufacturer, but if you have to pay more taxes than a manufacturer you have to have another license to pay the taxes that you ought to pay, or have to pay more than the taxes that your license as a manufacturing taxpayer entitles you to pay. Otherwise you will be fined if you don't pay them and you'll be fined if you do pay unless you first pay for a license to pay for them.

And then, again, you will be fined if you don't get a license so that you can pay and so avoid being fined for not paying the taxes just because you didn't have any license to pay them.
What are we talking about? Darned if we know. Ask the Dominion Government. It has taxation experts just out of the bug-house while we haven't been there—yet.—Ridgetown Dominion.

NEW CANADIAN NOVEL

It is always a pleasure to announce a new book by Robert Stead, who, with his publishers, the Mussion Book Company, Limited, of Toronto, has done so much to place Canadian literature on a self-respecting basis. Mr. Stead does not believe in supplying the Canadian literary market via way of New York. All Stead books, without exception, are printed in Canada, and they have included some of the biggest sellers on the Canadian market.

"Of course my books are printed in the United States and in England, too," said Mr. Stead in a recent interview, "but I believe the Canadian market should stand on its own feet, and by arrangement with the Mussion Book Company my books for the Canadian people are all produced in Canada. The experiment has been entirely successful, and has proved that so far as the Canadian market is concerned the Canadian author can be quite independent of foreign interests. We proved that with 'The Cow Puncher,' which was printed and produced in Canada, and which had a larger sale in Canada than any imported novel during the same period."

Mr. Stead's new book is called "Dennison Grant" ($1.75). It is a thrilling and thoughtful story of today, and, like "The Cow Puncher," will no doubt have a larger sale "than any imported novel" this season. It is the story of a young man who renounced his wealth because he believed that he was not fairly entitled to it, not having earned it. He does a number of other strange things, but he grips the affection of the reader as a white man through, even if he does come perilously close to falling into another kind of selfishness. There are two women, that is, two principle women, in the story, and one does not know until the last page which is really the heroine. Even then he is left wondering a little.

ROBERT STEAD

Robert Stead whose reputation is now securely established as one of Canada's foremost novelists, is an Easterner by birth but a Westerner by experience and training. Having lived for many years in Manitoba and Alberta, he is saturated in the many-colored stuff of life that is to be found in the prairie country of our great west. In his early volumes,
"The Bull Jumper," "The Homesteaders," and "The Cow Puncher," he has depicted the struggles of the first settlers in the west, has portrayed the various types of character developed on the plains, and has described with wonderful freshness the strenuous nation-building in evidence in the rapidly growing cities west of Winnipeg. In all his stories Mr. Stead paints "the thing the way he sees it." He is always true to the life of the people who throw his pages. The immense success achieved by his last novel, "The Cow Puncher," which had its largest sale in the west, is ample proof that his faithful pictures of

ROBERT STEAD

the realism and romance that are so strangely intermingled in the prairie country have been appreciated by those best able to judge.

Like many self-made men, Mr.
Stead, who is now a high government official in Ottawa, has had a varie-gated career. He began as a clerk in a Manitoba general store; from this he graduated to a lumber yard; next he took charge of a grain elevator; finally the itch to write got hold of him. He tried his prentice hand in verse, but while still in his teens took over a small country weekly.
Ten years ago he joined in the big rush to Alberta and became an automobile agent in the foothill country.
There he met every type of settler from millionaire ranchers and real estate boomsters to itinerant trappers earning a precarious living by skinning dead horses on the prairie. Later he joined the staff of the Calgary
"Albertan," and from that moved on to colonization publicity work. During all those years of change and varied activity, the future novelist was collecting literary material and was forming his philosophy of life, which is of the quiet, humorous sort,
not unlike that of David Harum.
One of the reasons why Mr. Stead's work has made such a powerful appeal to Canadians is that he not only crips the attention of the reader by his skill as a pilot builder and painter of western life, but because he is something more than an entertainer, he is the whimsical philosopher of the prairies.

CENTRAL SELLING FOR WHEAT IS WOOD'S PROPOSAL

MEDICINE HAT, Nov. 19.—At the U.F.A. sessions yesterday afternoon, President H. W. Wood expressed his opinion that only from two sources could come the power to control the price of Canada's wheat. One source was the Canadian government, and the other was the men who grew the wheat. The farmer could give the power democratically as the government had done arbitrarily, by creating the wheat board, but it would mean that at least 75 per cent of the farmers must sign "an absolutely fair tight contract" to deliver all their wheat to a board for five years. There was no reason, he declared, why they couldn't sell through a pool for a price greater than they could get in any other way, but they must sign an ironclad contract to deliver their wheat for a term of years to a central selling agency.

The discontinuance of the wheat board and the lowering of prices had done more to show the farmers the value of centralized selling than two years more of control by the wheat board could have done. A resolution was adopted by the convention setting forth that as the present system of marketing grain results in great loss to the farmers, and that as some form of control such as the wheat pool could be adopted, the convention petition the U.F.A. executive to take such action as was deemed necessary to obtain a better system of marketing grain.

Eliminate Speculation

The convention favored the principle of direct selling of commodities through some means whereby speculation would be eliminated. The session went on record in favor of a minimum salary of $1,200 per year for qualified school teachers, and for some system of equalization of school taxes and school education throughout the province, and urged that a more centralized system of school government be put in force.

President Wood contended in his remarks that the 1919 wheat crop could not have been sold for as much as it had if the wheat board had not existed. Fifty million dollars was a low estimate for the extra amount obtained as a result of the board. Today, he claimed, the farmer is selling on a decentralized demobilized basis, and farmers who declared that they would not sell their wheat would have to sell it some time and could not control the price.

Much Money Is Lost

Ninety days after the wheat board had ceased to function wheat had dropped a dollar per bushel, and the great amount of money thus lost could have been saved through centralized selling. He believed there would be many difficulties in arranging for the selling of their wheat through a pool. It would be necessary to thoroughly organize the machinery and finance the handling of the wheat. The work had to be done thoroughly and systematically, but it could be done and would bring the greatest victory the farmers had ever achieved.

HALF OF WHEAT CROP OF WEST IS INSPECTED

WINNIPEG, Nov. 20.—One hundred and forty-two million bushels of this year's western wheat crop, or in other words, more than half, has been inspected, and is presumed to be moving forward. The estimator crop was 230,260,000 bushels. Up till the middle of November this year there were 60,643 cars of wheat moved, as against 45,912 cars to that time last year. This has been accomplished under favorable conditions, the chief of which was good weather. Grain men point out that the railroads are in about the same position now as at this time last year, on account of the wheat crop this year being over 70,000,000 bushels heavier than a year ago.

Officials of the Canadian Pacific and Canadian National Railways state that all available equipment is in service in moving the grain crop. Never before, they state, was such an effort made to get the crop out of the country as speedily as possible.—Calgary Herald.

IRRIGATION METHODS

Irrigation is the name given to the plan of supplying water in large quantities to growing crops. The Spanish settlers in the southwestern part of America were probably the first to introduce this custom into that country. In New Mexico there is an irrigation ditch that has been in constant use for over 300 years.

The most common source of water for irrigating purposes is a river or small stream. A dam is put in the river so that the water is made to rise high enough to run into a canal. This is larger than the ditches that branch off into the fields. The canal is about ten feet wide and four feet deep. These canals are usually about 25 miles long and have smaller ditches that branch off to the farms.

There is a ditch rider for each irrigation district who turns the water to the farmers as their turn comes and shuts it off when the time is up. The farmers get the water in rotation and are allowed about one hour to the acre, according to the size of their head of water. In some parts artesian wells are used, irrigating large tracts of land at a very low cost.

The water being turned into the flume is then diverted into the lateral ditches running over the entire acreage, each portion of the land receiving its due quantity in turn. The laterals are made by means of a machine resembling a cultivator, are merely shallow furrows in the soil and when carrying the water over the land they are referred to as "rills." While irrigating is going on no other work should be attempted as should the water get beyond its boundaries a bad wash-out might follow, entailing considerable loss to the farmer or orchardist. One man can irrigate about fifteen acres per day and there is no loafing on the job.

Mrs. Flynn: "The neighborhood seems a bit noisy, Mrs. O'Brien."

Mrs. O'Brien: "Yes, Th' only time it's quiet here is when the trucks go by an' drown th' noise."—London 'Answers.'

ALBERTA GRAIN FOR THE INTERNATIONAL GRAIN AND HAY SHOW

At the Chicago International Grain and Hay Show, which will be held in conjunction with the International Live Stock Show, from November 27th to December 4th, an exhibit of registered seed grain by the members of the Crop Improvement Association of Alberta will be made. Professor G. H. Cutler, Professor of Field Husbandry in the University of Alberta, is arranging for a member of the Department to be in attendance at Chicago to see that the exhibits are properly placed and cared for.

This exhibit is the result of a movement set on foot to meet the persistent demands by the grain growers of Alberta upon the University for good seed. It has been repeatedly stated that present supplies of reliable seed were uncertain and entirely inadequate to meet requirements and moreover, that, in most instances, when seed was obtained no guarantee of its purity and truthness to type could be given. With a view to contributing some relief to this situation and in an endeavor to place seed growing on a sound and permanent basis, the Department of Field Husbandry of the University of Alberta conceived the idea of a seed organization of provincial scope. It was thought that such an organization might become an instrument through which Improved Stock Seed of known origin and purity, developed by the University, might be distributed to competent growers for multiplication and ultimately redistributed to farmers in general.

The time seemed ripe for an organization of this character and a beginning was made. The plan and functions of the organization were discussed in the Grain Growers' Guide of September 1st, 1920. During the Winter season of 1919 and 1920 some twenty-five men were organized into seven seed centres of "Local Crop Improvement Associations." Each member was supplied with enough Elite Stock Seed by the Department of Field Husbandry to seed a minimum of one acre. This was sown on clean land in each case and inspected by an officer of the Department when the crops were nearing maturity. These members have now harvested approximately 2,000 bushels of seed which is eligible for registration. This seed is not being offered for sale this year but it will all be seeded in the spring of 1921. It is now too soon to predict, but it seems reasonable to expect 75,000 bushels of seed in the fall of 1921, all of which may be registered as second generation stock.

The object in sending the exhibit to Chicago is to insure that the work of the Crop Improvement Associations will become widely known, so that when their seed is available in commercial quantities the market will be ready for it. At Chicago exhibits will be shown under the names of Individual growers, and will come into competition with the best grain grown this year on the North American continent. An opportunity will be offered the thousands of attendants at the combined show to see the high quality of seeds which can be produced in Alberta and to get some conception of the grain-growing possibilities of the Province.—University of Alberta Press Bulletin.

U.F.A. ORGANIZATION IN PEARCE AND MONARCH DISTRICTS

Organization work of the U.F.A. in Pearce and Monarch districts received a great impetus when Mrs. May Puncke of Stonelaw organized three new locals in as many days this week. Mrs. Puncke is a Hollander who has been in Alberta for ten years. She and her husband settled in the Della district and in all these years they met only one or two fellow countrymen. Mrs. Puncke has been doing U.F.A. work for some time and she is the political director for the North Handhill division of the Bow River constituency. She had asked central office to send her, if necessary, among a junior branch as Mrs. Puncke pointed out how necessary it was to provide amusements and education in the development of communist life to our boys and girls if we want to keep them contented with the life on the farm.

RETAILERS SLAM THE LUXURY TAX

TORONTO, Nov. 18.—Strongly criticizing the federal government for refusing to repeal the luxury tax and compelling the retail merchants throughout the country to act as tax collectors, 300 delegates to the annual convention of the Ontario branch of the Retail Merchants' association of Canada which opened here yesterday to make further representations to the government urging the repeal of the Luxury Tax act and the substitution of a tax applied at the source of production. During the discussion on the luxury tax the delegates claimed that there was difficulty in collecting the tax, which they said was expensive and tended to discriminate against the retailer. Besides they claimed that it injured business.

J. A. Banfield, Winnipeg, president of the Retail Merchants' association of Canada, advised a constructive policy. The retail merchants, if they realize their proper standing, would determine the welfare of the Dominion, Mr. Banfield said.

Judge Robson, former chairman of the Board of Commerce, had told him that the Retail Merchants' association would be the strongest trade organization in Canada, if the members only were blended together. The day of the proportional representation was coming, Mr. Banfield said, and if the retail merchants stood together they could vote their own representatives into parliament.—Lethbridge Herald.

THE BUSINESS OF RED CROSS IS CAREFULLY CONDUCTED

Just prior to the signing of the Armistice a large cash contribution was made from the Alberta Division of the Canadian Red Cross Society to the Central fund of the Society, leaving very little money on hand with which to carry on the work in this province. As no appeal for Red Cross funds has been made in Alberta since 1917, and as the Provincial Division has been obliged to undertake many new activities in developing its peace time program, the need for money for provincial purposes is now being placed before local branches of the Red Cross throughout the province. The Alberta Red Cross has created certain special funds which will be used to promote Red Cross work in Alberta. Contributions sent to these funds, will be spent in Alberta in promoting nursing service in outlying districts, in providing for the maintenance of two homes for soldier's children, in assisting ex-soldiers and their dependents who through disability or misfortune are in distress or suffering temporary hardship, in providing emergency relief, in promoting education in the principles of health and in organizing junior branches.

Since 1917 the Alberta division has been maintained largely by monies allocated from the Central office at Toronto, but at a meeting of the Central Council last week, it was felt that provincial divisions should soon be in a position to finance their own work. This the Alberta division now aims to do. After the national membership campaign to be held in May next, the revenue derived from this source will be sufficient it is anticipated to carry on all the normal expenses and activities of the divisions of all the provinces, and in the future it is not intended to undertake provincial campaigns for funds, but each local branch will be asked to make its contribution to the work which is undertaken by the provincial division. In their own districts, local branches are free to make any appeal to the public for funds which may be considered necessary.

At the recent meetings of the central council of the Canadian Red Cross Society in Ottawa, Sir John Hendrie, Col. A. E. Goddard and Col. W. B. Leonard were appointed as a standing committee on finance to advise and confer with the Hon. Treasurer, Mr. F. Gordon Osler, on all matters relating to the financial interests of the Society.

At the time of the Armistice, rumor was current that the Canadian Red Cross Society had large sums of money in its treasury. The Society at that time had a fund of about one million dollars, one half of which had been given to the Canadian Society by the American Red Cross, while a further portion of the fund was a gift to Canada from the British Red Cross.

When officials of the Canadian Red Cross were advised that the Society was to become a permanent organization and continue its work in peace time, in accordance with the terms of Article 25 of the covenant of the League of Nations, one of the first questions to be considered by those responsible for the administration of the national finances was what steps should be taken to provide the necessary funds for carrying on the new duties assigned to the Red Cross "in the promotion of public health, the prevention of disease and the amelioration of suffering."

At a conference of the League of Red Cross Societies held in Geneva in March last, it was resolved that all national Red Cross Societies should endeavor to cover expenses by the revenue realized through membership dues and the income from permanent investments. At the recent meeting of the Central Council, the opinion was expressed that the Canadian Society should endeavor to maintain a permanent endowment fund of one million dollars, the income from which might be available for the purposes of national administration.

In winding up the war work of the Canadian Red Cross some $500,000 was realized through the disposal of overseas supplies. This fact has enabled the national office to make grants to provincial divisions during the past four years for the purpose of organizing the peace time work of the Society, and it has been through these grants alone that the continuation of the work in Alberta has been made possible.

Mr. Norman Hindesley of Messrs. P. Burns and Co., acts as Honorary Treasurer of the Alberta Red Cross and a monthly audit of the books of the division is made to Messrs. Marwick and Mitchell. Mr. Gordon Osler, national treasurer of the Canadian Red Cross, reported at the last meeting of the central council that in addition to grants made to provincial divisions of the Society, grants had also been made on approval of the central council to the Society for the prevention of tuberculosis, the National Council for combating venereal disease, the mental hygiene Association, and the Child Welfare section of the Canadian Public Health Association. Sums have also been given to St. John's Ambulance Association and St. John's Brigade in accordance with arrangement made with these two organizations at the beginning of the war.

The appeal which is now being made by the Canadian Red Cross for the relief of distress in Central Europe, is organized at the request of the British Empire War Relief Fund which is operating through the League of Red Cross Societies for the relief of famine and diseases in central Europe.

ROD AND GUN

To the hunter or fisherman looking for new places to hunt and fish, Rod and Gun in Canada for December will prove invaluable. In a splendidly illustrated article, W. L. Edmonds, the well known writer, graphically pictures the wild life of the Dominion, including the North West Territories. Bonnycastle Dale takes his readers with him on a goose shooting trip after the big Canadas. In a reminiscent style Judge Fraleek describes the good old days in an interesting story of the Wayside Inn. The dog that is growing in favor every day is the Airedale terrier and in addition to the splendid cover painting by F. V. Williams, he has a story entitled, "Pluck" that will appeal to everyone. SOLDIER FARMERS IN THE DOMINION ARE MAKING GOOD OTTAWA, Ont., Nov. 19.—Seventy per cent. of the war veterans settled on the land in Ontario, under the Soldier Settlement Board plan, have made their payments of interest and principle promptly at due date. On November 1, there was due from 142 soldier farmers $222,675, and 775 of them, representing $125,045 have paid up. The balance of the total amount collected was made up by 85 settlers who paid off their entire loans or a considerable portion of them in advance.

The Soldier Settlement Board also has received interim reports from its "other branch" offices throughout the country, showing that its settlers are generally meeting their payments promptly. The total amount received by the board so far from this source is over one million dollars, and expectation is that this figure will be considerably increased.

The large number of settlers who are repaying in full their stock and equipment loans which run from six years, and their land loans which run for 25 years is a very satisfactory feature of the reports.

Board officials express great satisfaction with results following the first due period, showing that satisfactory progress is being made and that the great majority of soldier settlers will make good.—Calgary Herald.

FINAL PAYMENT ON PARTICIPATION CERTIFICATES

The Canadian Wheat Board having decided to make the final payment on Participation Certificates registered pursuant to Regulations No. 3 of the Board, makes the following regulation or order to govern the same:

1. A final payment of eighteen cents a bushel, shall, as soon as possible, after the fifteenth day of November, A.D. 1920, be made by the Board in full settlement of all Participation Certificates registered with the Board pursuant to said Regulation No. 3 and of all rights to participation thereunder in any and all monies received by the Board.
2. For the purpose of obtaining such final payment of Eighteen cents per bushel, each Participation Certificate in respect of which such final payment is to be made, which Participation Certificate was registered in the City of Winnipeg, must be presented and surrendered to the Board at its office Notre Dame Investment Building, Notre Dame East, in the said city of Winnipeg, and each Participation Certificate in respect of which such final payment is to be made, which Participation Certificate was registered in the city of Toronto, (bearing the letter "E" before the number) must be presented and surrendered to the Board at its office World Building, Richmond Street West, in the said city of Toronto. The Board will, except as hereinafter provided for, on such presentation and surrender, and upon the party presenting the same signing such forms as may be required by the Board, pay after the Fifteenth day of November, A.D. 1920, and as soon after such presentation and surrender as is reasonably possible in the ordinary course of the business of the Board, the sum of Eighteen cents per bushel on the wheat represented by such Participation Certificates to the person presenting the same if he purports to be the legal holder of such Participation Certificate and if such Participation Certificate purports to be properly endorsed pursuant to said Regulation No. 3; such payment to be in full and final settlement of all claims or demands under and by virtue of such Participation Certificates.

3. In all cases in which Participation Certificates have been issued, on or after the Fifteenth day of July, A.D. 1920, and no interim payment of thirty cents per bushel has been made thereon under the provisions of Regulation No. 119 of the Board, and in all cases in which the interim payment of thirty cents per bushel has not been made under the said regulation, upon any Participation Certificate; a first and final payment of Forty-eight cents a bushel shall be made in full settlement of all such Participation Certificates registered with the Board pursuant to said Regulation No. 3, and of all rights to participation thereunder in any and all monies received by the Board, and for the purpose of obtaining such first and final payment of Forty-eight cents per bushel, each Participation Certificate in respect of which such first and final payment is to be made, which Participation Certificate was registered in the city of Winnipeg, must be presented and surrendered to the Board at its office Notre Dame Investment Building, Notre Dame East, in the said city of Winnipeg, and each Participation Certificate in respect of which such first and final payment is to be made, which Participation Certificate was registered in the city of Toronto, (bearing the letter "E" before the number) must be presented and surrendered to the Board at its office World Building, Richmond Street West, in the said city of Toronto. The Board will, except as hereinafter provided for, on such presentation and surrender, and upon the party presenting the same signing such forms as may be required by the Board, pay after the Eighteenth day of November, A.D. 1920, and as soon after such presentation and surrender as is reasonably possible in the ordinary course of the business of the Board, the sum of Forty-eight cents per bushel on the wheat represented by such Participation Certificates to the person presenting the same if he purports to be the legal holder of such Participation Certificate and if such Participation Certificate purports to be properly endorsed pursuant to said Regulation No. 3; such payment to be in full and final settlement of all claims and demands under or by virtue of such Participation Certificate.

4. Upon such payment of Eighteen cents per bushel, or of Forty-eight cents per bushel, as the case may be, being made as aforesaid, each Participation Certificate in respect of which such payment is made shall be thereupon cancelled, and thereafter neither the producer nor the person in whose name such Participation Certificate was issued or registered, nor any other person or persons whomsoever, shall have any claim or demand of any nature or kind whatsoever under or by virtue of such Participation Certificate or for or in respect of the wheat represented thereby or therein referred to, nor shall any person whomsoever have any claim of any kind whatever against the Board in respect of such Participation Certificate or of the wheat represented thereby or referred to therein.

5. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, no final payment shall be made upon any participation certificate unless such Participation Certificate is actually presented and surrendered to the Board in pursuance hereof.

6. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board on payment shall be made upon any Participation Certificate in respect of which notice has been given to the Board of adverse claims, or in respect of which the Board has been notified that it has been lost, destroyed or stolen, unless a duplicate certificate shall have been issued pursuant to the rules of the Board in respect of such duplicate certificates.

7. In any case where a duplicate Participation Certificate has been issued in the place of an original Certificate, pursuant to the rules of the Board, such final payment may be made by the Board upon the presentation and surrender of such duplicate Participation Certificate in all respects as if the same were an original Participation Certificate.

Passed this Fourth day of November, A.D. 1920.

H. C. WINTER CO.

BRIEFS FROM ARDENVILLE

Mrs. G. Haur entertained at a very little surprise party on Wednesday evening last to celebrate the event of Glen's 21st birthday. The evening was spent in cards, dancing and games, and at midnight dainty refreshments were served after which dancing was kept up until the small hours of morning. The party included Mr. and Mrs. Ford, Mr. and Mrs. R. Simpson, M. and Mrs. T. Gautier, Mr. and Mrs. C. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. H. LeVasseur, Mr. and Mrs. J. Driver, Mr. and Mrs. L. Coffell, Miss Gorman, D. Mosen, Sophia Curlo, Christeen Le Grandeur, Eda Johnson, Susan Gautier, Josephine Gautier, Lela Simpson and Mary Shields, Messrs. C. Bodgenor, J. Shields, W. Murphy, W. Askew, V. Barr, G. Peters, A. Askew, J. Violette, L. Simpson, H. Griffiths, V. Goe, J. Chester, C. Chester and A. Johnson.

C. Chester and A. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Gautier left last week for Creston, B.C., where they will spend the winter.

Walter and Almond Askew were visitors in Ardenville this week.

The first U.F.A. meeting of the season was held in the school house on Friday evening last.

The young people are giving a dance in the school house on Friday, November 26. Everybody is invited to come and have a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ardie Simpson and Mr. and Mrs. H. Le Vasseur and Miss Lela Simpson and Mr. Lewis Simpson of Claresholm have been visiting friends in this district this week.

On Friday last the young people of Ardenville journeyed to McBrides Lake in Howard Griffiths' wheat hauling truck to attend the dance in the school house. The party consisted of twelve boys and girls. They all reported a jolly time.

WATERTON NOTES

The regular meeting of the U.F.A. will be held in the school house on Wednesday evening, December 1st. Members are urged to be present, as it is desired to make plans for the winter's work.

On Friday evening, Dec. 10th, there will be a dance and necktie and apron social in the school under the auspices of the U.F.A., proceeds to be in aid of Macleod Hospital.

Mr. Geo. Reddick and Mr. Vernon Goe start for California next week.

O. HENRY STORY PICTURIZED BY POPULAR CAST

"A Double Dyed Deceiver" will be remembered by some, as being one of the most interesting stories from the pen of the famous O. Henry. The very fact that it is a O. Henry story, and is to be picturized will be sufficient to send many to the Empress Theatre where the picture is shown there on Friday and Saturday.

As a starring vehicle for Jack Pickford, this new Goldwyn feature production promises to add a bigger popularity, if possible, to the works of this well known popular actor.

The Llano Kid
As O. Henry's hero the Llano Kid, Jack Pickford's distinctive ability finds a most interesting medium in the role of the youth who felt that even being known throughout Texas "as bad hombre" was a small honor, inasmuch as that reputation was based on dead Mexicans, and included "no white men." His adventures in a small South American town, where the greater part of the action takes place, warrants the assertion that this new picture will prove to be the most entertaining interpretation Jack Pickford has presented.

The Cast
Marie Dunn, of Edgar Comedy fame, has manifested her versatility by successfully portraying a delightful role in a dramatic production.

James Neill presents a study of dignity and character as Senor Nrique. Sydney Ainsworth, whose notable work as a "heavy" in many former Goldwyn productions has earned for him the sinister sobriquet of "Goldwyn's Villain," plays the role of an unscrupulous government official whose one ambition is to rob a wealthy man and live in luxury for the remainder of his life.

Edythe Chapman has a very motherly role which in some scenes is very touching.

Manual R. Ojeda is well cast in the role of secretary to the wealthy Spaniard.

The exploits of the Llano Kid will amuse and thrill you when you see the picture.

S. ALBERTA HAY GROWERS' AFFAIRS BEING UNTANGLED

PINCHER CREEK, Nov. 19.—The long delayed meeting of shareholders of the South Alberta Hay Growers came off on Wednesday last, Nov. 17th, in the opera house. The meeting was called for 4 p.m. and was called to order by the president, Mr. John Kemmis, M.L.A. Mr. Powlett of Calgary was present in his legal capacity, representing R. B. Bennett, who has been retained and is acting for the board of directors. Of 200 shareholders very few were absent. Mr. J. J. Bramiff was requested to act as secretary, who called the roll of shareholders, nearly all of whom answered present. The president gave a short history of the company since its commencement about 11 years ago, and wound up with the financial statement, which showed the indebtedness to be as follows: $93,000 due to the Union Bank; $50,000 due to secured creditors. To meet these large sums: Book debts, $30,000, which are claimed as having been agreed on; $23,000 in accounts that have to be adjusted. The company's warehouses, office furniture and some real estate, making up the total assets. So that assuming the $50,000 of book debts to all be good, there is a deficit in round numbers of $93,000, or more likely $100,000, $55,000 of which is guaranteed by the board of directors to the bank. A firm of chartered accountants have been working on the books for over a month and no satisfactory statement can be offered as to where this large shortage has gone, the books being in a perfect tangle, and are likely to remain so.

A great many questions were asked and answered by the president, or Mr. Powlett and a number of speeches made and a number of resolutions proposed.

After about three hours deliberations, the following resolutions were proposed and adopted.

1st. That H. E. Hyde be the trustee of a fund to be subscribed by the shareholders, to assist the directors in meeting the large deficit for which they are responsible.

2nd. A committee was appointed to personally wait on the shareholders to secure their contributions.

3rd. That the company go into voluntary liquidation.

That the board of directors, with their solicitor, prepare for the re-organization of the company with a view of continuing the business.

That a warrant be made out against their late manager, J. J. Cameron, and that he be arrested and brought back on a criminal charge of falsifying the books of the company. The general feeling was that something should be done to keep the organization running and the next meeting is being awaited with much interest.

Mr. John Kemmis, the president, is to be congratulated on the way in which he conducted the meeting, which was one of the most difficult and regretful kind of meetings ever held in Southern Alberta.—Lethbridge Herald.

DIFFERENCES DO NOT PREJUDICE ALLIANCE

PARIS, Nov. 20.—Differences between Great Britain and France have in no way prejudiced the alliance which held them together during the war, said Premier Lloyd George, of Great Britain, in an interview at London yesterday with the correspondent of the Parisien. Mr. Lloyd George declared that, regarding reparations, England would stand "elbow to elbow" with France, but he insisted that the amount Germany will be called upon to pay should be fixed. There are always some people who pick quarrels," said the premier, in reply to a remark by the interviewer, that French public opinion was badly impressed by what France believed to be the British attitude on questions vital to this country.

The interviewer told Mr. Lloyd George that the question of reparations took precedence over all others in France, and that, in certain French circles, there was an impression, either rightly or wrongly held, that the British premier opposed the viewpoint of the French relative to the amount Germany should pay.

Has Wrong Impression
"I would say that this impression is wrongly held," said Mr. Lloyd George. "I will tell you exactly what I think, it is very simple—make Germany pay all she can. Yes, but how much? Have you a figure? I say the amount should be fixed. Why do I say this? Is it to please Germany? Oh! who could think so?"

"I was a lawyer before entering politics, and when I confronted a debtor I had two courses to choose—either to enforce strictly the rights of my client, and sell the debtor's house and furniture, at the risk of getting nothing, or next to nothing, or saying to him 'You owe so much. How much can you pay at once? How much in a year, or in 10 years?' This latter method I found to be best, and this I advise following in dealing with Germany."

Friendship for France
"I have, I think," continued Mr. Lloyd George, "testified by acts and not only by words, to my friendship and admiration for the French democracy. We fought together, and conquered together, and must not renounce in peace the arrangements that in the past were dear to my heart. In return, the French people must not think I have become an enemy because I speak as a business man and as a realist. Friends should speak truth to each other and defend the system which seems best to conform with their common interests."—Calgary Herald.

NOT A CRIME TO PLAY POKER

Five of the children of Okotoks were acquitted last week of a charge against them for playing a friendly game of poker in the home of one of the contestants. The deck of cards and the pot amounting to three dollars and eighty cents were seized by the constable when the raid was made, and these were handed back to the players when they were acquitted. Two Justices of the Peace sat on the case some time ago, but could not agree, and another justice was called in to decide. It was held that the only way in which playing cards for money could be made a crime, was when the owner or tenant of the house was making a profit outside of what he might win or lose as one of the players.—Blairmore Enterprise.

LOU MINOR GUILTY OF CATTLE RUSTLING

MACLEOD, Nov. 19.—Lou Minor, of Happy Valley, was Thursday sentenced to 18 months' imprisonment in the Lethbridge goal, and a fine of $1,000, on a charge of stealing and killing a cow, by His Honor Judge E. P. McNeill, at a special sitting of the criminal court at Macleod. The case aroused considerable interest, especially amongst the cattle owners in and around the south country. The place where the stealing has been going on for some time past is at Happy Valley, which is situated about 15 miles west of Nanton. A large number of owners in this vicinity have for the past few years been sufferers from cattle rustlers, and it has only been during the past few months that the provincial police have been able to corral the guilty parties. Lou Minor, the defendant, is one of the best known cattlemen in the Nanton district. Also, he has gained a somewhat big reputation as a broncho buster and roper. He is a man of 38 years of age, well built, and bears the earmarks of his profession.

Came from U.S.
According to evidence produced in court, he came to this country from the United States in 1917, and started on a small farm with 27 head of cattle. At the present time he has a herd of about 400 head of cattle, and is looked upon as one of the leading ranchers in that district.

A large number of witnesses were called, both for the crown and the defence, and the evidence given on both sides was very contradictory.

The chief witness for the prosecution were Brandon and Hillicks, both former employees of Minor's, who swore that they were witnesses at the time Minor was skinning the cow in question, which belonged to a rancher named Streeter, and bearing the brand "Walking O." The star witness for the defence was Mrs. Irving, who was formerly engaged as a cook at the Minor ranch. She said the cow killed at the time by the accused was not one belonging to Streeter. During a severe cross-examination, R. B. Bennett, K. C., asked his honor to commit this witness for perjury, which the judge refused to do. Hillicks, one of the main witnesses for the prosecution, was himself in court a few months ago on a charge of cattle stealing, and pleaded guilty, but was allowed out on suspended sentence.

Eminent Counsel
J. W. McDonald, K. C., of Macleod, represented the crown, R. B. Bennett, K. C., of Calgary, the Stock Association, and McKinley Cameron, of Calgary, appeared on behalf of the accused.

Mr. Cameron made a splendid appeal on behalf of his client, and conducted the defence in an able manner.

R. B. Bennett, K. C., addressed the court at considerable length, and His Honor Judge McNeill complimented the counsel on their efforts during the case.—Calgary Herald.

REDEMPTION OF LANDS SOLD FOR ARREARS OF TAXES

As a matter of public interest with the Town Tax Sale pending it is not amiss to state the redemption course permitted by law in case of property sold to satisfy tax claims: Lands sold for arrears of taxes may be redeemed within one year from day of sale by the delinquent tax payer paying to the treasurer of the municipality the amount of arrears of taxes and costs together with a penalty of ten per cent. (of arrears and costs) and the sum of twenty-five cents for a tax redemption certificate.

Cash or Trade

We are going to spring a surprise to many. The past three years have been very bad for us and last year showed a heavy loss, our collections have been Nil. A great proportion put off paying their bills till a more convenient day. The consequence is that they are worse off than before, and owe more.

We think the only solution is to sell out and in the meantime do a cash business. Parties with a monthly account will pay up promptly on the first of next month, with three days grace.

Farmers accounts should be met by produce: Butter, Eggs, Poultry and Vegetables. It is a mistake in this country to depend upon wheat or any other grain to pay their yearly bills. It is a gambling proposition, they have to take chances on drought, hail, wind, drifting soil, cut worms and weeds, including the Russian thistle. Without irrigation there is no certainty of a crop, otherwise it is not suitable for mixed farming, the rainfall is too uncertain.

We are at the end of our financial tether and to continue giving further credit is simply suicidal. The Hudson's Bay Co. have sold out, we can't take advantage of their doing so by putting in a larger stock. We have no money or credit owing to the apathy and in many cases the dishonest indifference of others who owe us. Our conscience is clear in our past dealings with you, ask yourselves if yours is equally so.
